Bureau Veritas Marine & Offshore General Conditions

1. INDEPENDENCY OF THE SOCIETY AND APPLICABLE TERMS

1.1 The Society shall remain at all times an independent contractor and neither the Society nor any of its officers, employees, servants, agents or subcontractors shall be or act as an employee, servant or agent of any other party hereto in the performance of the Services.

1.2 The operations of the Society in providing its Services are exclusively conducted by way of random inspections and do not, in any circumstances, involve monitoring or exhaustive verification.

1.3 The Society acts as a services provider. This cannot be construed as an obligation bearing on the Society to obtain a result or as a warranty. The Society is not and may not be considered as an underwriter, insurer in the Society's sole or exclusive expert in the valuation, consulting engineer, controller, naval architect, manufacturer, shipbuilder, repair or conversion yard, charterer or shipowner none of them above listed being relieved of any of their expressed or implied obligations as a result of the interventions of the Society.

1.4 The Operations are carried out by the Society according to the applicable Rules and to the Bureau Veritas Code of Ethics. The Society only is qualified to apply and interpret its Rules.

1.5 The Client acknowledges the latest versions of the Conditions and of the applicable Rules applying to the Services performance.

1.6 Unless an express written agreement is made between the Parties on the applicable Rules, the applicable Rules shall be the rules applicable at the time of the Services performance and contract's execution.

1.7 The Services performance is safety based on the Conditions. No other terms shall apply whether express or implied.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 "Certificate(s)" means class certificates, attestations and reports following the Society's reservation. The Certificates are an appraisal meant given by the Society to the Client at a certain date, following surveys by its surveyors on the level of competence of the Unit to the Society's Rules or to the documents of reference for the Services provided. They cannot be construed as an implied or express warranty of safety, fitness for the purpose, seaworthiness of the Unit or of its hull, for safe, insurance or chartering.

2.2 "Certification" means the activity of certification in application of national and international regulations or standards, in particular by delegation from different governments that can result in the issuance of a certificate.

2.3 "Classification" means the classification of a Unit that can result or not in the issuance of a class certificate with reference to the Rules.

2.4 "Client" means the Party and/or its representative requesting the Services.

2.5 "Conditions" means the terms and conditions set out in the present document.

2.6 "Industry Practices" means International Maritime and/or Offshore industry practices.

2.7 "Intellectual Property" means all patents, rights to inventions, utility models, copyright and related rights, trade marks, logos, service marks, trade dress, business and domain names, rights in trade dress or get-up, rights in goodwill or to sue for passing off, unfair competition rights, rights in designs, rights in computer software, database rights, topography rights, moral rights, rights in confidential information (including know-how and trade secrets) methods and protocols for Services and any other intellectual property rights, in each case whether capable of registration, registered or unregistered and including all applications for and renewals, revisions or extensions of such rights, and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection in any part of the world.

2.8 "Parties" means the Society and the Client together.

2.9 "Party" means the Society or the Client.

2.10 "Registrar" means the registrar published annually by the Society.

2.11 "Rules" means the Society's classification rules, guidance notes and other documents. The Rules, procedures and instructions of the Society take into account the date of their preparation, the state of currently available and proven technical minimum requirements but are not a standard or a code of construction neither a guide for maintenance, a safety handbook or a guide of professional practices, all of which are assumed to be known in detail and carefully followed at all times by the Client

2.12 "Services" means the services set out in clauses 2.2 and 2.3 but also other services related to Classification and Certification such as but not limited to ship and company safety management certification ship and port security certification training activities, all activities and duties incidental thereto such as documentation on any supporting means, software instrumentation, measurements tests and trials on board.

2.13 "Society" means the classification society, Bureau Veritas Marine & Offshore SAS, a company organized and existing under the laws of France, registered in Nanterre under the number 821 131 844, or any other legal entity of Bureau Veritas Group as may be specified in the relevant contract and whose main activities are Classification and Certification of ships or offshore units.

2.14 "Unit" means any ship or vessel or offshore unit or structure of any type or part of it or system whether linked to shore, in wet bed or sea bed or not, whether operated or located at sea or in inland waters or party on land, including submarines, hovercrafts, drilling rigs, offshore installations of any type and of any purpose, their related and ancillary equipment, subsea or not, such as well head and pipelines, mooring, legs and mooring points or otherwise as decided by the Society.

3. SCOPE AND PERFORMANCE

3.1 The Society shall perform the Services according to the applicable national and international standards and industry Practices and always on the assumption that the Client is aware of such standards and industry Practices.

3.2 Subject to the Services performance and always by reference to the Rules, the Society shall:

- review the construction arrangements of the Unit as shown on the documents provided by the Client;
- conduct the Unit surveys at the place of the Unit construction;
- class the Unit and enters the Unit's class in the Society's Register;
- survey the Unit periodically in service to note that the requirements for the maintenance of class are met. The Client shall inform the Society without delay of any circumstances which may cause any changes on the conducted surveys or Services.

The Society will not:

- declare the acceptance or commissioning of a Unit, nor as construction in conformity with its design such as always remaining under the exclusive responsibility of the Unit's owner or builder;
- engage in any work relating to the design, construction, production or repair checks, neither in the operation of the Unit or the Unit's trade, neither in any advisory services and cannot be held liable on those accounts.

4. RESERVATION CLAUSE

4.1 The Client shall always (i) maintain the Unit in good condition after surveys, (ii) present the Unit after surveys, (iii) present the Unit for surveys, and (iv) inform the Society in due course of any circumstances that may affect the given appraisal of the Unit or clause to modify the scope of the Services.

4.2 Certificates referring to the Society's Rules are only valid if issued by the Society.

4.3 The Society has entire control over the Certificates issued and may at any time withdraw a Certificate at its entire discretion including but not limited to, in the following situations, where the Client fails to comply in due time with instructions of the Society or where the Client fails to pay in accordance with clause 6.2 hereunder.

5. ACCESS AND SAFETY

5.1 The Client shall give to the Society all access and information necessary for the efficient performance of the requested Services. The Client shall be the sole responsible for the conditions of presentation of the Unit for tests, trials and surveys and the conditions under which tests and trials are carried out. Any information drawings etc. required for the performance of the Services must be made available in due time.

5.2 The Client shall notify the Society of any relevant safety issue and shall take all necessary safety-related measures to ensure a safe work environment for the Society or any of its officers, employees, servants, agents or subcontractors and shall comply with all applicable safety regulations.

6. PAYMENT OF INVOICES

6.1 The provision of the Services by the Society whether complete or not, involve, for the part earned out, the payment of fees thirty (30) days upon issuance of the invoice.

6.2 Without prejudice to any other rights hereunder, in case of Client's payment default, the Society shall be entitled to charge, in addition to the amount not properly paid, interests equal to twelve (12) months LIBOR plus two (2) per cent as of due date calculated on the number of days such payment is delinquent. The Society shall also have the right to withhold certificates and other documents and/or to suspend or revoke the validity of certificates.

6.3 In case of dispute on the invoice amount, the undeposited portion of the invoice shall be paid and an explanation on the dispute shall accompany payment so that action can be taken to solve the dispute.

7. LIABILITY

7.1 The Society bears no liability for consequential loss. For the purpose of this clause consequential loss shall include, without limitation:

- indirect or consequential loss;
- Any loss and/or delay of production, loss of product, loss of use, loss of bargain, loss of revenue, loss of profit or anticipated profit, loss of business and business interruption, in each case whether direct or indirect;

The Client shall save, indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Society from the Client's own consequential loss regardless of cause.

7.2 In any case the Society's maximum liability towards the Client is limited to one hundred and fifty per cent (150%) of the price paid by the Client to the Society for the performance of the Services. This limit applies regardless of fault by the Society, including breach of contract, breach of warranty, tort, strict liability, breach of statute or in tort. Claims shall be presented to the Society in writing within three (3) months of the Services performance or (if later) the date when the events which are relied on were first discovered by the Client. Any claim not so presented as defined above shall be deemed waived and absolutely time barred.

8. INDEMNITY CLAUSE

8.1 The Client agrees to release, indemnify and hold harmless the Society from and against any and all claims, demands, lawsuits or actions for damages including legal fees for harm or loss to persons and/or property tangible, intangible or otherwise which may be brought against the Society, incidental to or arising out of or in connection with the performance of the Services except for those claims caused solely and completely by the negligence of the Society as officers, employees, servants, agents or subcontractors.

9. TERMINATION

9.1 The Parties shall have the right to terminate the Services (and the relevant contract) for convenience after giving the other Party thirty (30) days' written notice and without prejudice to clause 6 above.

9.2 In such a case the class granted to the concerned Unit and the previously issued certificates shall remain valid until the date of effect of the termination notice issued subject to compliance with clause 4.1 and 6 above.

10. FORCE MAJEURE

10.1 Neither Party shall be responsible for any failure to fulfil any term or provision of the Conditions if and to the extent that fulfilment has been delayed or temporarily prevented by a force majeure occurrence without the fault or negligence of the Party affected and which by the exercise of reasonable diligence, the said Party is unable to provide against.

10.2 For the purpose of this clause, force majeure shall mean any circumstance not being within a Party's reasonable control including, but not limited to, acts of God, natural disasters, epidemics or pandemics, war, terrorist attacks, riots, sabotage, imposition of sanctions, embargoes, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination, laws or action taken by a government or public authority, quotas or prohibition, expropriations, destructions of the worksite, expropriations, fires, accidents, any labour or trade disputes, strikes or lockouts.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY

11.1 The documents and data provided to or prepared by the Society in performing the Services, and the information made available to the Society, are treated as confidential except where the information:

- is already known by the receiving Party from another source and is properly and lawfully in the possession of the receiving Party prior to the date that it is disclosed;
- is, in any case, in the possession of the public or has entered the domain otherwise than through a breach of this obligation;
- is acquired independently, from a third party that has the right to disseminate such information;
- is required to be disclosed under applicable law or by a governmental order, judicial, legislative or rule or by a stock exchange authority (provided that the receiving Party shall make all reasonable efforts to give prompt written notice to the disclosing Party prior to such disclosure).

11.2 The Society and the Client shall use the confidential information exclusively within the framework of their activity underlying these Conditions.

11.3 Confidential information shall only be provided to third parties with the prior written consent of the other Party. However, such prior consent shall not be required when the Society provides the confidential information to a subsidiary.

11.4 The Society shall have the right to disclose the confidential information if required to do so under regulations of the International Association of Classification Societies (IACS) or any statutory obligations.

12. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

12.1 Each Party exclusively owns all rights to its Intellectual Property created before or after the commencement date of the Conditions and whether or not associated with any contract between the Parties.

12.2 The Intellectual Property developed for the performance of the Services including, but not limited to drawings, calculations, and reports shall remain exclusive property of the Society.

13. ASSIGNMENT

13.1 The contract resulting from these Conditions cannot be assigned or transferred by any means by a Party to a third party without the prior written consent of the other Party.

13.2 The Society shall however have the right to assign or transfer by any means the said contract to a subsidiary of the Bureau Veritas Group.

14. INEVITABILITY

14.1 Inevitability of one or more provisions does not affect the remaining provisions.

14.2 Definitions herein take precedence over other definitions which may appear in other documents issued by the Society.

14.3 In case of doubt as to the interpretation of the Conditions, the English text shall prevail.

15. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15.1 The Conditions shall be construed and governed by the laws of England and Wales.

15.2 The Society and the Client shall make every effort to settle any dispute amicably and in good faith by way of negotiation within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by either one of the Parties of a written notice of such a dispute.

15.3 Failing that, the dispute shall finally be settled by arbitration under the LCIA rules, which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. The number of arbitrators shall be three (3). The place of arbitration shall be London (UK).

16. PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

16.1 Each Party shall conduct all activities in compliance with all laws, statutes, rules, and regulations applicable to such Party including but not limited to, child labour, forced labour, collective bargaining, discrimination, abuse, working hours and minimum wages, anti-bribery, anti-corruption. Each of the Parties warrants that neither it, nor its affiliates, has made or will make with respect to the matters provided for herein, any offer, payment, gift or authorization of the payment of any money directly or indirectly, to or for the use or benefit of any official or employee of the government, political party, official or candidate.

16.2 In addition, the Client shall act consistently with the Society's Code of Ethics of Bureau Veritas (<http://www.bureauveritas.com/bvcodeofethics>).
